

I just read in a local paper about the danger of losing the very success of our No Call list. This is so disturbing for my family and eight other households that I have spoken too. This has worked so well since we signed up for it. I do not want to return to having our time invaded by someone that I would personally contact, if I was interested in what they offer. Please let the people in Wisconsin continue to be able to protect their privacy. Thank You